Anash Interactive Wordsearch Puzzle #2

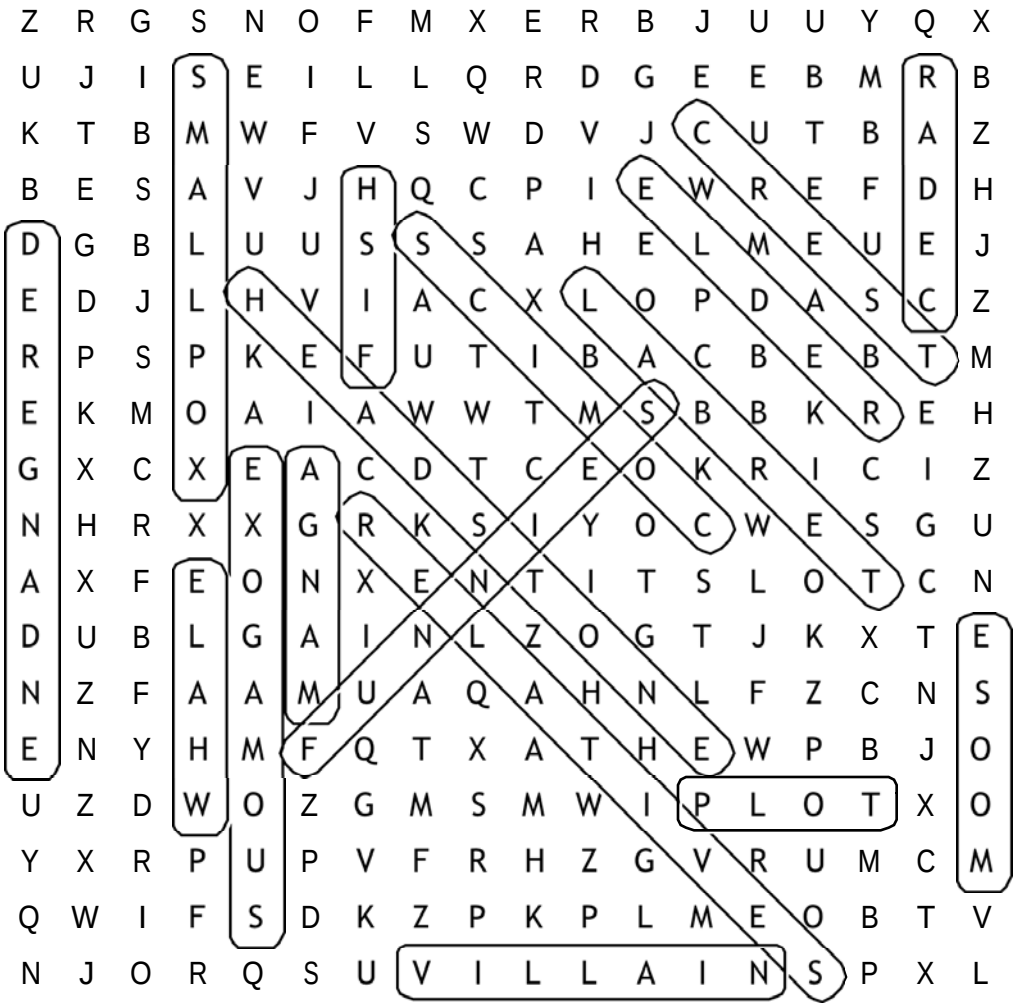
www.anashinteractive.com



1. This contagious, disfiguring, and deadly disease killed an estimated 1 in 3 Tlingit in the early 1800s. [smallpox]
2. This kind of potlatch is held to mark the end of a mourning period [Headstone]
3. It is considered wrong to use one of these Tlingit clan images without permission. [crest]
4. One of the staples of the inland Tlingit diet was this large mammal. [moose]
5. A person who is recognized for his or her wisdom about spirituality, culture and life is called an _____. [elder]
6. Tlingit canoes were traditionally carved out of this type of wood. [cedar]
7. High-status Tlingit women traditionally wore this wooden decoration in their lower lip. [labret]
8. The Tlingit language is considered to be _____ because very few speak it. [endangered]
9. Tlingits are_____, which means they marry outside of their own group. [exogamous]
10. Totem poles were carved using tools made from _____ bone. [whale]
11. Traditional Tlingits believe that people and animals are _____ who can cross into each other's worlds. [relatives]
12. Today Tlingit fishermen still believe that success in fishing depends on the willingness of the _____ to make itself available to humans. [fish]
13. Japanese-style comics are called _____. [manga]
14. The opposite of a hero is a _____. [villain]
15. This is the world's most widely read form of popular literature. [comics]
16. When they first came out, newspaper comic strips were called "The _____". [Funnies]
17. The sequence of events that gives the story structure and direction is called the _____. [plot]